Starview Cottage was built to take in the spectacular 180 degree views that are only available from a few select locations in Wandililigong. This classic Wandililigong Miner Cottage is only 12 years old, presents as new, and has been well maintained which means you won't need to lift a finger. This 3 bedroom home is sure to please everyone, as it will suit the holiday home/investor looking for that holiday retreat to escape the rat-race, but still earn a few dollars along the way. It would also work well for full time living with its 1/2 acre setting giving you plenty of space for kids to roam while you relax on the front verandah taking in the views and is an ideal size for you to potter around in the garden.

Comfortable open plan living, all bedrooms have built-in robes, bathroom with bath & shower and paved outdoor entertaining are just some of the features this property offers and inspections will be a must, as driving past just
