This home presents very well with its low maintenance exterior, bathrooms that have been renovated, open plan living and undercover outdoor entertaining.

Bedrooms one and two both have ensuites with bedroom three being more of a sleep out or would make an excellent home office or craft room also.

If you like to potter around your yard then this back yard is perfect for you. Or if you are looking for a property to subdivide then look no further, with the home set at the front of the land, why not consider splitting this property into
