

17 Pink Earth Drive POREPUNKAH VIC

1 1 2

Sitting above Porepukah is this 3 acre parcel of land that takes in some of the best views that are on offer in our region. This property currently has a one bedroom house on it (lets call it a Shack) plus extensive earthworks for where your dream home could be built, that would allow you to take in the very best views available. Looking over Porepukah, across to Mt Buffalo and out the Ovens Valley, back to the east toward Bright and further around to Roberts Creek Road, Apex hill and the Alps, this really is a sight to behold.

The Shack is liveable so could very easily be your home while you plan and build your new one or perhaps this could be your weekender for how ever long you need it to be, till you retire up to your country block and start living the dream.

Land Size : 12140.6 sqm
